International Independent Film Festival

17-20 November 2022

REGULATIONS

Festival Organisation

- Art. 1 The sixth SMR13 International Independent Film Festival takes place from 17 to 20 November 2022, in La Manare theater, in Saint-Mitre les Remparts, 13290, France.
- Art. 2 The festival aim is to promote the independent movies, with limited budget but with wide imagination. In this contest the selected films will be shown to the audience in their total length on a cinema screen in optimal conditions. They will be in competition to win one of the trophy awards representing Saint Mitre Les Remparts' mill.
The films registered must not have been subsidized to more than 50% of the total budget by a state body.
- Art. 3 The festival establishes an official selection and an outsiders' competition selection so called « Hopes ». All registered films are competing for the official selection and for the « Hopes selection ».

Official competition

Art. 4 The registered films will be pre-selected by the selection festival committee. This latter is appointed by the AFCI – French Association for the Independent Cinema – which organizes the event.

Each member from the committee is able to watch the registered films. He can grade them. Each film must be seen by at least  $2/3$  of the committee members. A film can't be selected without getting an average grade of minimum 10. The committee members will meet after the registration closure in order to establish the official selection. The committee decisions are irrevocable.

Art. 5 The Festival committee will also establish an outsider's competition selection so called « Hopes » : around 20 short, medium-length and long films not chosen for the official selection but with outstanding qualities.

The committee will then choose the best « Hopes » (up to 4). They will have the opportunity to be shown during the festival and will receive the AFCI award.

Art. 6 The jury(s) is composed from 10 to 20 members : some are from cinema universe, others are independent, actors, film makers, composers or technicians... Each year the jury is different, members are mostly composed by French people but from people from all over the world as well.

Usually, one or more members were part of the previous Festival selection.

Art. 7 All films are considered on the same basis, whatever their origin or their teams' origins.

No censorship of any kind will be applied insofar films are in agreement with the French Law: All film with racist, xenophobic, homophobic, pornographic features or violating the French Law will be removed from the selection.
